

Versasec AB is an Identity and Access Management (IAM) provider that helps businesses manage their access-enabling devices, including smart cards, mobile devices, tablets and PCs, virtual devices and RFID/NFC.

The company is established worldwide with offices in five countries spanning two continents and with customers all over the world. The Versasec team is an agile and fast growing group of professionals.

For our R&D office at area Halle/Leipzig, Germany we are hiring a full-time, permanent

Junior Software Developer

with the following main responsibilities:

- Software development (modules)
- Quality assurance: Developing test procedures and testing
- Internal documentation

We appreciate you to have the following skills/qualifications:

- Degree and/or proficiency in computer science, data science, or technology-related field
- Minimum 1 year working experience in C# and C++ under MS-Windows
- Experience and knowledge in the area of OO SW development
- Experience MS-Visual Studio
- Very good skills in English language for communication and documentation
- Quality oriented, willingness to learn, teamwork
- We prefer applicants with a solid technical background in PKI/Smartcards, Windows enterprise Environment (AD, CA)

What we offer:

- Permanent position (full-time) near Halle (Saale), Germany
- Global fast growing company with intercultural environment and a creative, open minded, and agile R&D team, focused on very good teamwork and open communication
- Innovative high-tech enterprise with a modern working environment
- Self-reliant work and varied field of activities
- Maximum support for relocation (visa, housing, child care...)

Working at Versasec can be lots of fun, creative work, challenging for a wide range of your skills.

Please send your questions or application (in one pdf-file) to our CTO: Joerg Dettmann, job@versasec.com

versasec.com