Versatile Security Announces Partnership with Equipages

Versatile Security and Equipages announce a partnership to offer the vSEC:CMS smart card management system in the French market.

Stockholm, Sweden, May 16h, 2012 – Versatile Security Sweden AB announces the partnership with Equipages, France. Equipages will offer Versatile Security's Smart Card Management System, vSEC:CMS to the French market.

“We are really pleased to introduce Versatile Security technologies into our solutions for our customers. The aim was to simplify the management of the smart card lifecycle. The flexibility of the offer, the ability to upgrade easily to manage more smart cards, the strategic partnership with Gemalto and the price model are the main reasons for including the Versatile Security solutions into our security portfolio,” said David Albonico, CEO of Equipages.

“Versatile Security has now formed yet another strong partnership in France. To work with such an established partner as Equipages, will provide the company with several new interesting opportunities. For the last six months, Versatile Security has steadily increased its activities in the French market and now our innovative smart card management system has been added to Equipage's portfolio of solutions,” said Per-Anders Fjärdsäter, CEO and President of Versatile Security.
