

Versatile Security and Cogito Group Announce Partnership

Versatile Security and Cogito Group announce a partnership that makes vSEC:CMS available to Cogito Group's impressive list of clients and to the Australian market.

Stockholm, Sweden, August 4th, 2014 – Versatile Security Sweden AB announces a new partnership with Cogito Group, a systems integrator based in Canberra, Australia. Through the partnership, the market leading smart card management system vSEC:CMS from Versatile Security is offered to Cogito Group's customers in the Australian region. The partnership shows good potential as Cogito Group specializes in implementing strong security and Versatile Security focuses on developing identity and access management (IAM) systems to the enterprise and government markets.

"We are pleased to announce this strategic partnership. Versatile Security offer a powerful card management system that allows customers to efficiently manage smartcards throughout the life cycle of the cards. This product fits in perfectly with Cogito Group's commitment to providing its customers with dynamic innovative solutions," said Richard Brown, CEO, Cogito Group

"It is with great excitement that we are now entering the Australian market together with Cogito. In the joint efforts leading up to this partnership, we've been extremely impressed with Cogito's solid expertise and responsiveness. The Australian market is a fledgling market for Versatile Security and I'm convinced that this will be a success for both companies and our joint clients," said Joakim Thorén, CEO, Versatile Security
